The very essence of human progress is applying new knowledge in new ways, continuously making the old way of doing things obsolete. Organizations don't make progress, people do. The organization is just a vehicle for human cooperation. Its form adapts as the needs of the people adapt, and peoples' needs change with the progressive acquisition and application of new knowledge.

-Francis Guillard and James Kelly

How did it get so late so soon?
It's night before it's afternoon.
December is here before it's June.

My goodness how the time has flewn.

How did it get so late so soon?

-Dr. Seuss

Football is not about playing a game, its about never giving up. With a 5-5 record, the Central Chargers have had the best season since 1998. This year, the team was consistently supported by students, faculty, and patrons of Macon, Georgia.

After being separated by divisions from the rival Westside High School, the teams face-off again to win the title of the best team in Bibb County.

In our most trivial walks, we are constantly, though unconsciously, steering like pilots by certain well-known beacons and headlands, and if we go beyond our usual course we still carry in our minds the bearing of some neighboring cape; and not till we are completely lost, or turned round—for a man needs only to be turned round once with his eyes shut in this world to be lost—do we appreciate the vastness and strangeness of nature. Every man has to learn the points of compass again as often as he awakes, whether from sleep or any abstraction. Not till we are lost, in other words not till we have lost the world, do we begin to find ourselves, and realize where we are and the infinite extent of our relations.

Father to Daughter
By: Larry J. Lockett Sr.

There are many things that you must do. There are many things that you must stay away from as you move from the shelter and protection of parents to being a college student. First you must nurture the God given abilities that you possess to climb the ladder of economic and social injustice to the heights of sharing the abundant wealth of the world that we live in. A good education is the foundation.

Second, you must stay away from the breeding grounds of defeatism by demonstrating perseverance personal and cultural constraints, and challenge the very notion of giving up. You must always remember the things that I have always taught you: Hard work, respect for others, honesty, never giving up, be kind, seek wisdom at all times from those who are wise, and last but not least, get a good night's sleep.

You must always remember, when things seem insurmountable, that you can do all things through the power of Christ that is within you.

My daughter do these things and thy shall do well.

J e K a r e n

This year has been one of great change. With a fresh start, we were able to bond together and make everlasting memories.

As editor of the yearbook, I witnessed many things that others did not have the opportunity to see. I have seen the hard work that goes into each activity here at Central, the dedication of the students to making a change in the world, and most of all, the underlying spirit that ties all of us together.

My decision to continue with the yearbook for my senior year as editor-in-chief was one I considered for a very long time. I knew it would be hard work, but the finished product always makes the struggle worthwhile. I hope that somewhere on any page you find a picture or quote that says, "This is worth the struggle."
